Discerning A Call – Lenten Conversation and Book Study

During the first five Sundays in Lent, we will meet together to explore how God may be calling us to mission.

What is God up to in our midst and in our neighborhood?

How do we join up with it?

To assist us in our exploration, we will discuss Dwight Zscheile's People of the Way.

Come join the conversation.

March 10 - April 7 9:15-10:10 (note the time change)

For more information and to reserve a book, contact Deacon Mary.

Cost of the book is $14.

Security System

We anticipate doing a necessary upgrade to our security system on Thursday, March 7. This upgrade will require that all key cards are replaced with new ones- you will need to bring in your old one and exchange it for a new one. Since the new cards are $4 each, we are trying to limit how many we distribute. If you don't really need a key card, or you and a spouse could share a key card, please take that into account.

Let's Help-March Paper Goods

March is the month to restock paper goods for Let's Help. Items needed are:

- ◇ Toilet Paper
- ◇ Tissues
- ◇ Paper Towels
- ◇ Napkins

Please bring your donations to any service, and they will be transported to Let's Help. And once again, thanks for your generous donation.

St David's Courtyard

A new year and a lovely spot to spend time praising God. The Courtyard Committee of 2018 transformed the space to its earlier beauty. Updates include new grass, lovely urns of flowers, and a repaired bench. Summer, Winter, Spring and Fall, there is a space for reflection and remembering our loved ones

For 2019 Frank Golos will lead the team that has and will continue to tend St. David's Courtyard.

Rector's Pantry

The Rector's Pantry has been located to the classroom next to the office. Thanks to the moving and organizational skills of Frank and Shirley Golos and Lynn Thompson, the new location is much easier to access and use. Thank you to all who continue to support this much needed ministry of St. David's.
