Questions for the Rector

Many of my friends in churches of other denominations make a big deal about what people wear to church services. They say, for example, it is disrespectful to wear jeans or shorts. Where do they get that idea?

As a culture, our opinions about what is and is not appropriate attire have changed over time and tend to differ generationally. In the past, how one chose to dress was a way of demonstrating respect and/or modesty. Style of dress can also imply wealth or lack thereof- think about the popularity of brand name clothes and accessories. And then we still have things like “funeral suits,” wedding dresses, christening gowns, etc. Sometimes our clothes mark specific life events for us.

People who dress up for church usually intend to show respect for God and God’s church. Dressing up, for them, also marks attending church as a special occasion, worthy of extra attention and effort. That does not mean that those who do not dress up intend to be disrespectful, though it often feels that way to the “dress up” folks. Those who do not dress up tend to think of how they dress not as respectful or disrespectful, but simply as what they choose to wear.

Two things to remember: 1) come to church, dressed up or not and 2) give other folks the space to come dressed up or not too.

A big shout out to the Duncans along with Parish Life for the Ice Cream Social. Susan Hack will be out of town the week of July 9th, so, please fill in that spot for coffee hour and any other time you see that works for you, “Our Church Family”. Thank you all for taking time to serve and host coffee hour.

St David's needs a Buildings and Grounds Committee! We have lots of things that need to be done in and around our building and we need folks to help set the priorities of what to do when. If you are interested in serving on this committee please contact the church office or Junior Warden Mike Becerra. We'd like to begin work in a few weeks. Thank you.

The Office will be closed
Wednesday, July 4th and will re-open
Thursday, July 5th.
