Matthew 6:1-15 The Story of 5 loaves and 2 fish

Let's feed the hungry:

Summer offers no break for food pantries. Hunger doesn't get the attention in the summer that it does during the holiday season, but food pantries are still working to bring in donations and pass them out to the needy. Remember, August is canned tuna meat month.

Sweet corn, peaches, squash, zucchini, tomatoes: What do these type of produce have in common? Attention gardeners-food pantries do accept fresh produce!!

Please deliver these items directly to Doorstep.

Doorstep Coordinator

Episcopal 101

Sunday Mornings (9:15-10a.m.) September 8 through October 13, Mother Vicki will be leading a class we're calling Episcopal 101. This class is an introduction to the beliefs, history and practices of the Episcopal Church and St. David's especially. It's a great place to bring your questions about our worship services, how we make decisions, who sets the budget and all sorts of other things. The class is open to youth and adults 7th grade and older who are interested in learning more about our church and our faith. Please know that this class takes the place of our confirmation class this year. If you wish to be confirmed on December 8, attendance and participation in this class is expected. Please let Mother Vicki know if you plan to attend.

There are many talented brass musicians that attend St. David's church.

Who are they? Can we identify them? Why?

These musicians can give their talent to a new musical group here at our beloved St. David's.

With easy music available, and talent to identify and recruit, let's start an instrumental ensemble! This group can enhance our religious experience, and give "young" and "not so young" an opportunity to have fun and become more involved at St. David's.

What next? Who is interested? Who will share their talent? Who can make time for rehearsal?
