Let's feed the hungry:

Summer offers no break for food pantries. Hunger doesn't get the attention in the summer that it does during the holiday season, but, food pantries are still working to bring in donations and pass them out to the needy. Remember, August is canned tuna meat month. Sweet corn, peaches, squash, zucchini, tomatoes: What do these types of produce have in common? Attention gardeners—food pantries DO accept fresh produce!! Please deliver these items directly to Doorstep.

Doorstep Coordinator

Stewardship Snippet

If it is more blessed to give than to receive, then most of us are content to let the other fellow have the greater blessing—Shailer Matthews (1863-1941), American theologian

Thank you Meredith and Eva for a wonderful coffee hour last week. This Sunday coffee hour will be hosted by our Jr Daughters and they will be sharing their experience at Tri-eninal.

The Sacred Arts committee invites all St David's folks to join them in an experiment. From August through November of this year, individuals and groups are offered the opportunity to provide flowers for the altar for our weekend services. We will put a notice in the bulletin about each week's donation. Please email office@stdavidchurch.com with your dedication for the bulletin. You may arrange the flowers yourself or have your favorite florist do it for you. Flowers should be delivered to the church at 4:30pm on Saturday afternoon. There's a sign-up calendar on the bulletin board in the Narthex, so please sign up!

Calling all students - Sunday School will begin on Sunday, September 9th from 9:30-10:15. We will offer classes for elementary, middle, and high school aged students. On opening day only, we will plan to meet at the back of the Parish Hall for a beginning of the year prayer and to answer any questions that parents may have. Also, we could still use a couple of more teachers. Please contact Chris Holman at 633-6524 if you are interested or even have questions about how you can help.

October 9th at 5:00 p.m. we will have a fundraiser at McAlister's Deli @ 1129 S.W. Wanamaker Rd. Suite B.

To this point, there has been 1 RVSP commitments to eat and we still need 19 people to confirm their meal by October 6, 2018, or the meal will be canceled.
