Dear St Davidians,

I am so grateful for your prayers and good wishes. Whatever I had over the last 2 weeks (probably a virus but not Covid- the test was negative) really knocked me down but I am doing lots better now. I am pretty much back to myself, dealing with the manageable effects of my lung infection, for which I'm being treated. I so appreciate your care and support.

Mother Vicki

This weekend, September 25-27, is our diocesan Clergy Gathering. All the priests and deacons of the diocese will gather (some in person, some on zoom) for those three days. St David's services of morning and evening prayer will be led by Lay Reader Mike Francis with a sermon provided by Bishop Cathleen.

The Community Blessing of the Animals will be held at Gage Park on Sunday, October 4 at 1pm. Mother Vicki will be there to offer pet blessings. We will be outside if the weather allows and probably do a simple drive thru if it's a rainy day. Masks and social distancing will be required.

Our bus bench is in and it looks great!! A couple of years ago we asked the city about putting in a bench at our bus stop so people could sit while they wait for the bus. It took awhile but the bench is in and is a great gift from St David's to our community.

WE ARE OPEN!

Please keep the Servants Shop in mind. We have a lot of great gift ideas.! We have a few HyVee cards left too!

Until further notice, there is no congregational singing allowed per diocesan requirements.

Rector's Pantry

The Rector's Pantry is running low on vegetables, (with the exception of green beans), canned fruit, canned meats, hand soap and toothpaste.

Any donations are greatly appreciated!

Protect Yourself and Others

Stewardship Snippet

Being a good Steward sometimes takes a little work, a little compassion, a lot of caring and no recognition. But nobody worries about that. Those qualities are what is needed to be part of the Prayer Chain and the Card Ministry. These behind the scenes folks serve to (obviously) pray for those who need the powerful force of healing prayer or for comfort. A list of those needing prayers is sent out and the Prayer Chain Members get to work. What a merciful ministry. And then, there are those who need to be remembered or encouraged or to just know that we care for them. The Card Ministry Chair has a group of members that regularly send out a cheerful note or an inspiring message to "their list". This is a joyful ministry. Thank you, faithful Stewards.
